

THE DAY YOU OVERLOOK THE
ads. may be the day you should look-over them.

VOL. CVIII. NEW SERIES—NO. 14,190.

LOUISVILLE, THURSDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 7, 1907.—10 PAGES.

PRICE THREE CENTS
105 CENTS FIVE CENTS.

The Courier-Journal.

EVEN IF THE LOSER DOESN'T ADvertise the loss, the finder should advertise the find.

The Weather.
Forecast for Thursday and Friday:
Kentucky—Fair Thursday; Friday fair,
warmer, in east portion.
Tennessee—Fair Thursday; Friday fair,
warmer in east portion.
Indiana—Fair, warmer Thursday; Friday partly cloudy, possibly rain in north portion; light to fresh variable winds, becoming southeast.

THE LATEST.

Having already an enviable reputation for serving its thousands of readers with reliable returns of the elections, the Courier-Journal yesterday beat its own record for accurate and complete reports of the election both in the State and in the city of Louisville. It gives its readers the returns from 107 out of the 119
counties in the State and from all but three precincts in Louisville and Jefferson county, one of those missing not having even been counted. The first edition of the Courier-Journal, which went to press at 10 o'clock, carried a full and accurate report on the early trains to many parts of the State. The results in the senatorial and legislative races were also given yesterday morning, reports coming in last night
only confirming what was said in yesterday's issue except in one or two instances. The record made by the Courier-Journal yesterday morning has in no wise been approached by any other Louisville newspaper.

Although the next General Assembly
will be Democratic on joint ballot, there is not the remotest chance of the election of Gov. Beckham as United States Senator, and the probabilities
are that the Democrats will hold a caucus
and choose a nominee to be elected in January, disregarding the primary
of last fall.

The Coroner's jury at Lexington
found that Patrolman Michael Murphy fired the shot that killed Clyde Campbell. The evidence at the Campbell showed that the elder Campbell fired the first shot in the melee. After knocking the younger Campbell down, Murphy, who was himself fatally wounded, knelt over him and fired, the bullet entering the back of the head.

Augustus E. Willson has been elected Governor of Kentucky, and the returns show that the entire Republican ticket has also been elected, although the candidates on the Democratic ticket
for the minor State offices have not conceded defeat. The returns show that they ran ahead of Judge Hager in several large counties, and they are awaiting the official count.

Rhode Island has re-elected Governor
James H. Higgins, Democratic candidate for Governor of 1906 since 1904. The General Assembly is Republican in both branches, insuring the return of George Benbow Weimore to the United States Senate.

Stuyvesant Fish, former president of the Illinois Central railroad, said last night that he would send out a new request for proxies for the annual meeting of the Illinois Central stockholders,
to be held in Chicago December 18.

Raymond Hitchcock, the actor, after a mysterious disappearance of several days, showed up in court in New York yesterday and was held in bond of $7,500 to answer to the indictments recently returned against him.

The Republican candidates in Lexington and Fayette county have decided to contest the election of the Democratic ticket. The seats of Klair and Combs in the General Assembly
will also be contested.

William R. Hearst was given an examining trial on the charge of criminal libel preferred by William Astor Chanler. The justice announced that a decision would be handed down Wednesday.

It was announced in London at the conclusion of the negotiations last night that the danger of a railway strike has been averted. The terms are satisfactory to both sides.

Returns from the municipal election in San Francisco indicate the election of most of the candidates on the Good Government League ticket, including Taylor for Mayor.

Maryland has elected the Democratic candidate for Governor, Judge Austin
L. Crothers, and the entire Democratic State ticket by about 7,000 plurality.

Frank S. Katzenbach, Jr., Democrat,
has conceded the election of John F.
Fort, the Republican nominee for Governor of New Jersey.

John C. Dueber, owner of the Dueber Hamper Watch Works at Canton, O., died yesterday after a short illness.

The plurality of Gov. Curtis Guild, Republican, in Massachusetts, was 104,351, the largest given since 1898.

The Title Guarantee and Trust Company of Portland Ore., was yesterday
placed in the hands of a receiver.

A receiver was appointed in Boston yesterday for the A. and N. Print Works of North Adams, Mass.

ANTI-BECKHAM

Not the Remotest Chance For Election of the Governor
To Senatorship.

Enough Democrats Oppose
Election To Defeat Him.

Tuesday's Results Regarded
As Repudiation of Snap Primary.

New Nominee To Be Chosen
At Caucus When Legislature Meets.

REPUBLICANS LOSE CONTROL.

With the Republicans claiming a tie vote on joint ballot and the Democrats claiming a majority of twelve, the General Assembly of Kentucky seems to be Democratic by a bare margin. The Courier-Journal's returns show forty-nine Republicans in the House and thirteen in the Senate, with one district in that body doubtful. According to these returns, the Republicans will have sixty-three and perhaps sixty-four votes on joint ballot, while the Democrats will have seventy-five or seventy-six.

Although the Republicans will not have a majority on joint ballot, and will not be able to elect a United States Senator, it is now certain that J. C. W.
Beckham will not be elected Senator.
There will be enough Democrats opposed to him to defeat him, and it is now the general talk among politicians
in Louisville and at the Democratic State headquarters that another Democrat will be elected.

Many Democrats who have been elected members of the General Assembly declare that the defeat of the State ticket nominated by the primary which was held last fall releases them, and that Gov. Beckham is not the nominee of the party for Senator. They also maintain that the party rules were violated when the primary was called more than a year before the time for the election, and that there will have to be a caucus of the Democratic members of the Legislature, just as though no primary had been held. They say that they will go to Frankfort, a caucus
will be called and a nominee for Senator chosen by that caucus, and that it will not be Gov. Beckham. The man selected at this caucus will then be presented to the Legislature in joint session and he will be elected by the Democratic majority.

This is said to be the plan in case
the Democrats have the working majority in the joint session that the returns show, and there seems to be no doubt that the Democrats will have a majority. At Democratic headquarters yesterday it was claimed that the Democrats would have fifty-one in the House and a majority of eight or ten in the Senate, which is about what the Courier-Journal figures give them.

At Republican headquarters in Louisville last night it was claimed that the Republicans will have fifty-three in the House, giving them a majority and the speakership. In the Senate, the Republicans claim sixteen members. They say that two of the districts which have been classed as Democratic in the House, are doubtful and that they may carry them. According to their claims they will have sixty-nine votes
on joint ballot, just half the total number, leaving the vote a tie.

The best that the Democrats can get on joint ballot is seventy-six, and, as seventy are necessary to make a choice,
seven Democrats failing to vote would deadlock the General Assembly on a Senatorial election.

It is generally agreed that, on this showing, Gov. Beckham has no chance whatever for the Senatorship. Not only is the defeat of the Democratic City and State ticket ascribable to him,
but the vote is regarded as a repudiation
of the snap primary. It is known that the Democrats who will have seats in the next Legislature are unalterably opposed to his election.

The Legislators, according to the returns received by the Courier-Journal,
are as follows, with one Senatorial district marked doubtful:

REPRESENTATIVES.
Adair and Cumberland—G. Luther Perryman, Republican, farmer, Pellyton.

Allen—T. B. Dixon, Republican, attorney, Scottsville.

Anderson—William E. Dowling, Democrat, attorney, Lawrenceburg.

Ballard and Carlisle—Jesse Nichols,
Democrat, attorney, Bardwell.

Barren—W. F. Edmunds, Democrat,
contractor, Glasgow.

Bath and Rowan—Pierce Blair, Republican, livestockman, Morehead.

TOM JOHNSON'S MAJORITY 9,313

Burton Says the Mayor's Machine Was Invincible.

Like Contest of Raw Recruits
and Trained Troops.

Johnson Says, "People's Fight and People's Victory."

SEVEN YEARS' WAR IS WON.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 6.—Complete returns give Tom L. Johnson, Democrat, for Mayor, 48,339; T. E. Burton, Republican, 39,026; Johnson's plurality, 9,313. The entire Democratic ticket was elected with the exception of Police Clerk.

The City Council will stand twenty-five Democrats to seven Republicans.
Congressman Theodore E. Burton, discussing his defeat in the mayoralty
contest, said to-day:

"The victory of Mayor Johnson was due to a wide variety of causes.

"First, a feeling that the street railway question can be settled by a Mayor
in such a manner as to secure cheaper street car service. This, coupled with a feeling, which in some instances was bitter, against corporations, especially the Cleveland Electric Railway.

"Many voters could not be led to take a dispassionate view of the situation. With a longer campaign it is more than probable that the people would have become educated in this regard and different results reached.

"Second, no man can appreciate the strength of Mayor Johnson's machine.
The work of thousands of men, their positions at stake, trained to political service, and many of them with friends and relatives equally interested, is a factor strong enough to determine any election under ordinary circumstances.

This machine manifested its power. No volunteer organization could equal it in efficiency. It was like a contest between regular troops and raw recruits.
"Another factor was the almost united support given Mayor Johnson
by the liquor interests of the city.

"One great advantage which lay with Mayor Johnson in this campaign was compared with others was the operation of lines carrying passengers at a three-cent fare, and the impression that a system would be established on which a three-cent fare would be charged, and which would include the whole city."

Mr. Johnson's Statement.

Mayor Johnson, referring to his re-election, said:

"Through all the confusion and slander the people kept their minds fixed upon the real issue, so that to-day Cleveland is a free city. It was the people's fight; it is the people's victory.
The right may lose a battle, but it never lost a war. Our seven years' war is won. Cleveland will go on with its great work. It will recognize all the lawful and equitable rights of the defeated monopoly, but it will reserve
and preserve all the rights of the people."

GOV. GUILD'S PLURALITY

Largest Given In Massachusetts
Since 1898 Election.

Boston, Nov. 6.—Politicians throughout the State were most interested today in examining the returns from yesterday's election to consider the bearing on next year's contest. The Independence League maintained its place as a political body, while the so-called anti-republican party, by polling a trifling over 3 per cent. of the total vote, also will be in the race next year to hold a convention and to place candidates on the official ballot. The plurality by which Gov. Guild won his re-election, which revised figures to-day placed at 104,351, is the largest given since 1898. On the other hand, the Democratic vote of 84, 192 was one of the smallest in years.

George Fred Williams, for ten years
leader of the Bryan forces in Massachusetts, issued a statement to-night on yesterday's voting. Mr. Williams was one of those Democrats who opposed Henry M. Whitney throughout the campaign. His statement in part is as follows:

We witnessed yesterday a most successful and spectacular political fundamentalism and a most successful showing of Mr. Whitney proves that the Springfield Convention of the Independence League was not a failure. The League's platform of "Independent Government" has been known to our State for many years. It is a platform of reform, and it is a platform of reform.
For Mr. Whitney and the National Democratic party this vote is a mighty significant.

At the moment when the Ballot Law
Committee outraged justice by its decision, the Democrats moved quickly out
of the party into the Independence
League. Thousands voted for Gov. Guild
in conversion of official regularity has never been known in our State.

For Mr. Bryan and the National Democratic party this vote is a mighty significant.

At the moment when the Ballot Law
Committee outraged justice by its decision, the Democrats moved quickly out
of the party into the Independence
League. Thousands voted for Gov. Guild
in conversion of official regularity has
never been known in our State.

For Mr. Bryan and the National Democratic party this vote is a mighty significant.

At the moment when the Ballot Law
Committee outraged justice by its decision, the Democrats moved quickly out
of the party into the Independence
League. Thousands voted for Gov. Guild
in conversion of official regularity has
never been known in our State.

SUPPORT FOR WEAKER ONES

Air Cleared In Regard To Trust Companies.

Gold Engagements Have Risen To $37,500,000.

Stock Market Much Improved
In Strength.

MONEY FOR THE NORTHWEST.

New York, Nov. 6.—The general conditions of the financial situation were favorable to-day. The runs on the trust companies had practically ceased
under the encouraging influence of the support of the trust company committee; gold engagements were further increased and the stock market rose buoyantly in recognition of these conditions.

The announcement by Mr. King,
president of the Union Trust Company,
early in the morning, that an agreement had at last been reached by which the Trust Company of America and the Lincoln Trust Company were to deposit their stock in the hands of a committee of trust company presidents and in consideration of this, were to receive all the support required, finally cleared the air in regard to the trust company situation.

Grave apprehension existed as to the termination of the conference at Mr.
Morgan's house at 3 o'clock this morning, that an agreement in regard to the trust companies would not be reached
and that they might be subjected to a run too strong for their impaired resources. Now, that this danger is removed, it is believed that the situation will gradually simmer down, with the continuous arrival of gold, until the stringency is converted into a situation of reserve money in banks which usually follows a crisis.

Gold Engagements.

Additional gold engagements were announced to-day of $100,000,000 on account of Lazard Freres and $500,000
on account of the Bank of Montreal.
This brings up the total gold engagements on the recent movement to $37,500,000, which would afford the amount required for legal reserve
against deposits of $150,000,000.

The gold which arrived yesterday was deposited to-day and by the time the Lusitania will soon be in the vaults of the banks.

Where there is still some apprehension regarding the possible effect of the flow of gold from London by raising the discount rate on Thursday, there is a strong feeling among conservative financiers here that the directors of the Bank of England will be very reluctant to fix a rate of discount which has not been touched since 1873. It might have been thought that the Bank of England would be more ready to overcome this reluctance if the reserves, under the enlightened policy of Gov. Pallin, by the purchase of sterling bills to the amount of $3,000,000 to relieve the London market.

The Stock Market.

The strength of the stock market was the reflex of improved feeling throughout the financial community. It is believed that the stock market has pretty well discounted the worst that is even in case of new disturbances. It is understood that the arrangement by which the committee of trust companies' presidents takes control of the majority stock of the Trust Company
of America, and the Lincoln Trust Company, is only a temporary device to re-establish confidence. What will be the ultimate disposition of this stock
has not yet been seriously considered,
but it is certain that the Trust Company committee and the clearing-house committee will insist that these companies pursue, in future, a policy of the strictest conservatism and shall not embark in any underwritings which are not capable of being converted readily into cash.

Currency For the Northwest.

Now that the monetary strain has been lessened locally, the New York banks began preparations to-day to ship all available currency to the Northwest to aid in the movement of crops. Estimates of the combined amounts that the New York banks will send to the Northwest within the next six weeks vary. The Chase National Bank and the First National Bank have commenced to ship daily sums ranging from $25,000 to $40,000 to banks along the route of the Great Northern and Northern Pacific railroads.

The bringing in to-day of gold from abroad has already proved helpful in expediting the movement of currency to the Western wheat fields. The present policy of the Government in regard to currency became lower to-day, and this enabled several banks to ship large amounts of currency to the Northwest and have otherwise proved possible to their correspondents west of the Mississippi river. It was learned here to-day that the amount of the Government deposits directed by Secretary Cortelyou to be placed in St. Paul and Minneapolis has been $2,000,000. The local sub-treasury is understood to-day, is prepared to ship westward should Secretary Cortelyou deem it expedient.

Tennessee Coal Deal.

The Board of Directors of the United States Steel Corporation to-day approved of the purchase of the stock of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Railroad Company. Announcement to that effect was made by E. H. Gary, chairman, after the meeting of the board. Mr.
Gary said the action was unanimous.

There was a large attendance of investors at the meeting. Among others present was H. H. Rogers, who made his first appearance in the financial district for over two months to-day.

John W. Gates, who returned from Europe yesterday, was one of the holders of the Tennessee Coal and Iron stock who consented to transfer the holdings to the United States Steel Corporation. Mr. Gates said to-day:

"From what I can see, conditions are now sound, with every indication that the financial situation will continue to improve. The dangerous speculations have been eliminated and a gradual readjustment is now under way. As to the purchase of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company by the United States Steel Corporation, the steel people got the best property in the country, and at a bargain price. I regard it as a sacrifice of stock, worth a great deal more than the purchase price. I did not intend to sell my stock, but I had to follow the crowd."

Lusitania Bringing Gold.

Bringing $10,000,000 in gold to the relief of the banking and financial institutions of this country, the swift liner Lusitania is hurrying for New York at her swiftest pace. A report
from the captain of the Lusitania, received by wireless at the Cunard Line
office in this city, says that at 10 a.
m. to-day the ship was 519 miles east of
Sandy Hook. The Lusitania left Queenstown at 11:30 a. m. Sunday, and
according to this report, she averaged 24.50 nautical miles per hour. Continuing at this rate of speed, she will reach Sandy Hook in mid-afternoon to-
day. If she accomplishes this it will reduce the record time for the passage
from four days, nineteen hours and fifty-two minutes to four days, seventeen
hours and thirty minutes.

SITUATION GROWS BETTER.

Banks Everywhere Are Taking Out Increased Circulation.

Washington, Nov. 6.—The financial situation on this country, the swift
liner Lusitania is hurrying for New York at her swiftest pace. A report
from the captain of the Lusitania, received by wireless at the Cunard Line
office in this city, says that at 10 a.
m. to-day the ship was 519 miles east of
Sandy Hook. The Lusitania left
Queenstown at 11:30 a. m. Sunday, and
according to this report, she averaged 24.50 nautical miles per hour. Continuing at this rate of speed, she will
reach Sandy Hook in mid-afternoon to-
day. If she accomplishes this it will reduce the record time for the passage
from four days, nineteen hours and fifty-two minutes to four days, seventeen
hours and thirty minutes.

Aid For Minnesota.

Washington, Nov. 6.—With reference to his plan for relieving the financial situation in the Northwest as the result of the visit of Senator Nelson, of Minnesota, and a delegation of bankers, Secretary Cortelyou, after calling at the White House to-day, declined to state the amount which would go to Minnesota, but indicated that it would be sufficient to meet the necessities of the situation. The Secretary said that the delegation also obtained further relief in New York.

Bank Stops Payment.

San Francisco, Nov. 6.—Taking advantage of the bank holidays declared
by Gov. Gillette, the Citizens' State Bank stopped paying to-day. The doors of the bank were not closed, but no money was received or paid out. To patrons of the bank the bank the clearing-house, the bank had to settle its balances in gold, and was being rapidly drained.

Ready To Do the Right Thing.

New York, Nov. 6.—E. H. Gary, chairman of the Executive Committee of the United States Steel Corporation, is quoted to-day as saying regarding the visit which he and H. C. Frick made to Washington on Monday:
"The President is disposed to do everything in his power that is right and proper to relieve the business interests of the country."

Appointed Co-receivers.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 6.—The Superior Court yesterday appointed appointed Senator Rathbone Gardner
and James M. Scott, both of Providence, as co-receivers of the United States Steel Corporation, of this city, Central Falls and East Greenwich, which closed its doors October 25. Judge Sweetland continued Cornelius S. Sweetland as temporary receiver.

Receivers For Steel Company.

Buffalo, Nov. 6.—Judge Hager to-day appointed as receivers of the New York State Trust Company Spencer Kellogg, George Urban, Jr., and Adolph Reba-
now. A statement was given to-day saying: "Owing to the severe stringency
in the business world it has been determined to accept the receivership of all, to have a temporary receiver appointed."

Arizona Bank Suspends.

Globe, Ariz., Nov. 6.—The Globe National Bank, with a capital of $50,000
and deposits of $300,000, temporarily suspended its business to-day. The cash on hand with no cash coming in from outside banks forced the suspension. The full reserves are on hand.
Cashier A. G. Smith says the bank will pay dollar for dollar to depositors.

In Hands of Receiver.

Portland, Ore., Nov. 6.—The Title Guarantee and Trust Company, of this city, has this afternoon passed into the hands of a receiver. Judge Charles E.
Wolverton, in the United States Circuit Court for the district of Oregon, appointed George H. Hill, vice president of the institution, as its receiver, and fixed his bond at $100,000.

Receiver For Print Works.

Boston, Nov. 6.—Henry H. Warner, of this city, was appointed receiver for
the Arnold Print Works at North Adams, in the Third United States Circuit Court to-day. It is understood that the cause of the embarrassment was the inability of the works to meet maturing loans held by savings banks.

Will Lay Off No Men.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 6.—J. E. Burley, general manager of the Santa Fe railroad, said to-day that the Santa Fe would not lay off any men this winter in its operating or way departments. "We need the men we have now in completing the Bien cut-off,"
he said.

May Resume Cash Payments.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—A sentiment among some of Chicago's leading bankers that the Western Union Telegraph Company might resume cash payments would be feasible and desirable was one of
the encouraging factors in the local banking situation yesterday.

FAMOUS WATCHMAKER DEAD AT CANTON.

Canton, O., Nov. 6.—John C. Dueber, a watch manufacturer, died at his home to-day. Although in feeble health for a year, Mr. Dueber was not taken seriously ill until yesterday. At his home he was with his wife, daughters, Misses Estella M. and Pauline Dueber,
and son, Albert.

GARVIN M'NAB PROBABLY FATALITY.

San Francisco, Nov. 6.—Garvin Mc-Nab, the well-known attorney and political leader, was shot today by a runaway horse and fell from his horse. His skull was fractured and he may be fatally injured.

AUGUSTUS E. WILLSON WINS HIS RACE FOR GOVERNOR

Elected By Majority That May Go Over 15,000.

Republican Committee Claims
Complete Returns Show
17,935.

Minor Officials On Democratic Ticket Do Not Concede Defeat.

Figures Show That They Ran Thousands Ahead
of Judge Hager.

Await Official Count Before Giving Up All Hope.

Result In Race For Railroad Commissioner In Doubt.

BAT TARLTON NOW IN LEAD.

Augustus E. Willson has been elected Governor of Kentucky by a majority that may be as high as 15,000, according to the returns received by the Courier-Journal, with only a few counties
to be heard from, but with some precincts still missing.

William H. Cox, of Mayfield, is elected Lieutenant Governor by about the same majority given Mr. Willson, but the Democratic candidates for the minor State offices do not yet concede
their defeat and claim that the official returns will cut down the majority greedy. The returns from several of the larger counties show that the State ticket ran ahead of Judge S. W. Hager considerably.

At Republican headquarters last night it was announced that complete returns had been received from every county in the State and these returns showed that Mr. Willson had a majority of 17,935. The Republicans also claim that this majority will be increased when the official count is made and the returns are in from all the precincts in the mountain counties in the Eleventh district.

It is also claimed at the Republican headquarters that L. P. Tarlton, of Frankfort, the Republican nominee for Railroad Commissioner in the Second district, has won by from 1,200 to 1,600,
but these figures appear to be very much too large. They also claim that the Republicans in Judge Lassing's district do not concede his election, declaring that the official count will be necessary to determine the result.

The figures in such of the counties
as have been heard from in all the races show that the majorities for the minor officials on the Republican ticket
are not nearly so large as in the race for Governor. In Jefferson county Hager lost by over 7,000, while the remainder of the ticket was defeated by over 5,000, a gain for the ticket over its head of 2,000. In Campbell and Kenton counties there was a difference of about 1,000. The same applied to Bell county and many of the counties
which have been heard from. Messrs.
Hendrick, Bosworth, Vreeland, Lafoon
and Newman claim that the returns on the official count will show that they ran, by comparison with their opponents, several thousands better than Hager and they want to see the official vote before they give up.

FIRST DISTRICT.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 6.—[Special.]—
Preliminary returns

STEWART DRY GOODS CO.

(Business Established Sixty Years.)

NEW YORK STORE.

Sixty-First Anniversary Sale CONTINUES TO-DAY.

The Greatest Merchandising Event Ever Held
In the History of This Business.

In compliance with the request made by hundreds of our patrons, who found it impossible to reach many departments,

The Great Sale Will Be Continued
In All Sections To-day.

STEWART DRY GOODS CO.

IN CONNECTION WITH JAMES MCCREERY & CO., NEW YORK.

LIFE OF SERVICE

Ended Suddenly When J. C. Van Pelt Died.

HEART DISEASE FATAL TO PROMINENT ORGANIZER.

PLAYED LARGE PART IN BUILD-ING UP COMMERCIAL CLUB.

FUNERAL THIS AFTERNOON.

J. C. Van Pelt, one of the best known and highly esteemed business men and organizers of business and benevolent societies of Louisville, died suddenly at 3:45 o'clock yesterday morning in his apartment at the Guthrie-Coke building, Chestnut street, near Fourth avenue. He was seventy-four years of age and had been in good health. The cause of his death was given as heart failure. Mr. Van Pelt was prominent in the building up of Louisville's business, having been the chief organizer and later the most active propagandist of the Louisville Commercial Club, and one of the first organizers of the local Post D of the Travelers' Protective Association, as well as of the central body of that association when it was organized in St. Louis.

At one time he served as president of the Louisville Commercial Club, but resigned to become secretary of the Membership Committee, which post he held at the time of his death. He was also secretary of the board of governors of the Kentucky Children's Home Society, and an honorary member of Post D of the Travelers' Protective Association. He was a prominent active member of the Knights of Pythias and of Louisville lodge No. 8, B. P. O. E., which will have charge of the services at the grave in Cave Hill cemetery this afternoon.

Work With Commercial Club.

James C. Van Pelt entered into the field of the Louisville Commercial Club work eleven years ago, during the administration of Angus Almond, now of Lexington. Mr. Almond had watched the work of Mr. Van Pelt in building up the Commercial Club at St.

Louis, Mo., and in organizing Posts of the Travelers' Protective Association, and invited him to undertake the work of rejuvenating the Louisville Commercial Club. At that time the membership was fewer than 200. With his usual vigor, Mr. Van Pelt undertook the work of increasing the roster, and within a short time had succeeded so admirably that the board of directors of the Club unanimously chose him as secretary.

Always successful in this field of labor, Mr. Van Pelt's duties as secretary of the club called for his most determined effort to add to the roster of the organization. He lived to see the membership roll close to 2,000, and he may be credited with having brought to the roster more members than all other agencies combined. During his career of eight years as secretary of the club, continuing until March 1, 1905, Mr. Van Pelt, by close application and an energy that was remarkable, devoted systematic and effective effort toward increasing the industries of Louisville, and in advancing the interests of State development.

Recognized as one of the best organizers of commercial bodies in the South, he was in a constant demand by different sections of Kentucky. There are now in the State close to seventy-five active commercial bodies, and Mr. Van Pelt assisted in the organization of a majority of them.

He was secretary of the Louisville Commercial Convention, held in Louisville in the latter part of the 90's, and served in that capacity during the second and third conventions, all of which did much toward the advancement of Kentucky.

Died While in Harness.

As has been before said, he perhaps realized to a great extent his power in the direction of securing new members for any organization, and, therefore, after he had passed three score years and ten, still as vigorous as the majority of men of middle age—he asked to be relieved of the active duties of secretary of the club and to be placed solely in charge of the labor of the membership roll. This was in February, 1905. At that time, the labor of the Kentucky Commercial Club, the St. Louis Exposition were ended, and Mr. Van Pelt made a personal request of R. E. Hughes that he be allowed to present his name to the Board of Directors for secretary, which position he desired to vacate.

Upon assuming the reins of the secretaryship of the Membership Committee, a position created at Mr. Van Pelt's request, he bent his efforts with more activity than ever toward swelling the club's membership. He served in this capacity until the day before his death. In the past would he secured several applications for membership, and they would have been acted upon at yesterday's meeting of the Board of Directors of the club but for the fact that the board adjourned after adopting the following resolutions, out of respect to Mr. Van Pelt:

Resolutions Adopted By the Louisville Commercial Club Upon the Death of J. C. Van Pelt.

The directors of the Louisville Commercial Club learn with profound sorrow and a sense of great loss of the death of James C. Van Pelt, who gave the best years of his life to the upbuilding of the club in high official capacities; therefore be it

Resolved, That this, the regular meeting of the directors, be adjourned out of respect for the memory of him, who had been so closely associated with all of us in the many years past; that we attend the funeral in a body, and being powerless to give but scant expression to our grief and appreciation of his sterling worth, that we adopt these resolutions.

The deceased might truthfully be called the savior of the Louisville Commercial Club. He took up the duties of secretary when the membership had reached its lowest ebb, and by honest, conscientious work brought the roster of the club to its flood tide.

Standing always for the best in commercial and fraternal life, he worked unceasingly for the advancement of his city and State, and made staunch friends of all acquaintances.

In the Louisville Commercial Club he laid the foundation for a monument to his untiring endeavor, and out of his other fields of effort a shaft has been built that pierces the sky of faithful memory.

Whereas, It has pleased the All-wise Providence to remove from earthly endeavor James C. Van Pelt, who so faithfully served this committee for years, and who was for years a great force in the success of the Commercial Club, and in the progress of this city; therefore be it

Resolved, That we extend to his survivors the sympathy of this membership committee, who were his co-workers and personal friends.

Members of Committee: Smith, T. Bailey, chairman; George T. Cross, John W. Miller, Jr., T. W. Dryden, J. E. Comley, John H. Hancock, J. W. Bliss, James R. Keller.

In Various Mercantile Enterprises.

Mr. Van Pelt was born in Lexington in 1832, and came to Louisville in 1856, entering the service of H. Knott & Co., at that time the leading retail dry goods store in Louisville. He soon qualified himself for work in a wholesale house, and secured employment in 1858 with the firm of Wheat, Baker & Co., wholesale dry goods merchants. He was a fellow-clerk with John L. Wheat with this firm during the years of 1858, 1859 and 1860. Shortly after the Civil War began he entered the Government service, taking a responsible position in the Revenue Department, where he remained until the close of the war. Upon retiring from the revenue service the collector and his deputies presented Mr. Van Pelt with a gold silver wine set.

After the war he organized the wholesale firm of Van Pelt, Moses & Newberry, which was succeeded by Van Pelt, Moses & Sugg. He liquidated this firm and entered into partnership with William Griffith, at that time treasurer of the L. and N. railroad, upon whose death he formed a partnership with William Kaye. Failing in health, he retired for a while, and later accepted a traveling position with Gers & Co. He was next with the Hesse-Meyer Co., and when that firm discontinued business he retired from all connection with the commercial houses in Louisville. He then organized by special arrangement several posts of the Travelers' Protective Association, and also assisted in increasing the roster of the Commercial Club of St. Louis.

His Family Connections.

In 1859, Mr. Van Pelt married Miss Mary Christopher, a sister of Charles L. Christopher, now superintendent of construction of the Louisville Railway Company. She lived about two years, leaving a daughter, who died December 24, 1860. In 1864 Mr. Van Pelt married Miss Mary Campbell, a sister of Pike Campbell, manager of the Fifth-avenue Hotel, and who was a cousin of his first wife, Mrs. Van Pelt died in May, 1906. Her death was a severe blow to Mr. Van Pelt. They had been married forty-two years.

Mr. Van Pelt leaves a brother, Sanford D. Van Pelt, of Danville, who was postmaster there under President Harrison's administration, and a sister, Mrs. Orlando Root, who resides in Louisville.

Mr. Van Pelt was an honorary member of Post D, T. P. A.; a deacon in the First Christian church, an active member of Louisville Lodge, No. 5, B. P. O. E.; a member of the Knights of Pythias, and a member of the Board of Governors of the Kentucky Children's Home Society.

The arrangements for Mr. Van Pelt's funeral were announced last night by Secretary R. E. Hughes, of the Commercial Club, who had been placed in charge of them by the directors of the club, the Elks Lodge, the officers of the First Christian church, and the officers of the Kentucky Children's Home Society.

The funeral will take place at 2:30 o'clock at the First Christian church, being assisted by Dr. B. M. Messick, presiding elder of the M. E. church, South.

Mr. Van Pelt was a great lover of good music and was always impressed with the efforts of Musical Director R. Gratz Cox and the choir of the First Christian church. Mr. Cox and the choir will give a special musical programme at the funeral this afternoon.

Following are the pallbearers, representing the different organizations and his church: Honorary Pallbearers—Kentucky Children's Home Society, George L. Sehon, J. R. Bullock, Louisville Lodge, B. P. O. E., J. E. Marred, Max Bloom, Commercial Club, Smith, T. Bailey, E. H. Bacon; First Christian church, Sam M. Bernard, W. B. Carter.

Honorary Pallbearers—Louisville Lodge, B. P. O. E., R. W. Brown, William Newberry, Perry, Enos, Spencer, Fred O. Nisziel, G. R. Burton, Julius V. Beckmann, T. E. Turner; First Christian church, T. J. Minnary, John Sherry, R. H. Ottor, James S. Carpenter, W. E. Grinstead, W. H. Logan, Kentucky Children's Home Society, R. W. Buchanan, J. H. Ramsey, W. L. McNair, Ben Howe, Commercial Club, R. S. Brown, W. H. Bradbury, F. W. Keisker, R. E. Hughes, H. E. Pringst, Judge James P. Gregory, Samuel H. Moen, Fred Levy, T. L. Jefferson, W. R. Belknap and Angus Almond, of Lexington.

MURPHY DEAD

Wounds of Policeman Who Killed Campbell Fatal.

PATROLMAN SMITH AND ELDER CAMPBELL RECOVERING.

CORONER'S JURY HEARS WITNESSES TO TRAGEDY.

TESTIMONY OF T. A. KNIGHT.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 6.—[Special.]—

Policeman Michael Murphy, who was shot during the election fight in which Clyde Campbell was killed and Policeman Marion Smith and W. R. Campbell were wounded, died from his wounds to-night at 10 o'clock. He was shot twice through the bowels and it was evident from the first that his wounds were fatal.

The dead man, who was generally known by his nickname of "Buncer," was one of the best known policemen of the city and had been on the force since 1895. He was about fifty years old and was born in Ireland, but came to this country when a boy. He was a blacksmith by trade and worked in the carshops of the L. and N. railroad at Covington until 1888, when he came to the city and was employed in the C. and O. shops until 1895. He married Miss Hannah Crimmins, of Covington, who survives him, as do the following children: John, May, Anna and Margaret, the oldest being sixteen years, old and the youngest ten.

Murphy had been stationed for several years at the Southern depot, where he made the acquaintance of traveling men from all over the country, and no man on the force was more widely known among the people of Lexington.

Inquest Held.

The coroner's jury held an inquest to-day over the body of Clyde Campbell, who was killed yesterday during an election fight in which he faired W. R. Campbell, and Policemen Michael Murphy and Marion Smith were wounded. After hearing the testimony of Thomas A. Knight, R. A. Downing and Sanford Ellis, the jury returned the following verdict: "We, the jury, find the body before us to be that of Clyde Campbell, aged about twenty-three years, and from the testimony we find he came to his death on November 5, 1907, from a pistol shot in the head and that said pistol was fired by the hand of Patrolman Michael Murphy."

The body of Campbell showed only two wounds, one on the side of the head, evidently inflicted by a policeman's club, and a bullet hole in the back of the head near the base of the brain, and which had caused his death. All of the witnesses agreed substantially that Murphy struck Clyde Campbell with his club and the latter, reeling, fired at Murphy, who then knocked him down. W. R. Campbell then opened fire, which was returned by the officers, and Murphy, after being shot twice, staggered back to where young Campbell lay struggling in the street, and bending over him fired liberally from a distance of only ten or twelve inches at his head.

Knight's Story.

The fullest testimony was given by Thomas A. Knight, photographer. Mr. Knight said that Policemen Murphy and Smith were taking W. R. Campbell along Vine street to the station house when Clyde Campbell came running after them with a pistol in his hand and overtook the group in front of Bayless' wholesale grocery. He demanded that the officers turn his father loose, and thrust his pistol in Murphy's face. Murphy was evidently taken by surprise, but continued to pull the elder Campbell toward the police station. At this juncture a policeman came running from toward Broadway, and some person in the crowd yelled, "Look out, Clyde." Young Campbell turned his head in that direction, and Murphy, taking advantage of the opportunity, struck him with his club. W. R. Campbell then jolted loose from the officer and fired the first shot. Murphy then again struck young Campbell, knoeing him down, and the latter in falling fired one shot. Policeman Smith, who had been wounded, probably by the elder Campbell's first shot, and Murphy then turned on W. R. Campbell, who exchanged several shots with them and finally retreated into the Bayless grocery. Murphy, who was evidently severely wounded, staggered over to where young Campbell was, squirming on the ground, and kneeling over him put his pistol within about twelve inches of his head and pulled the trigger.

This was the last shot fired, and, Mr. Knight believes, the only shot fired by Murphy during the fight. After shooting Clyde Campbell Murphy stepped over him and as he put his foot on the curbing began to moan aloud, "Oh! Oh!" Murphy then fell several times, but each time again rose to his feet. The other officers then arrived and the battle was ended.

Condition of the Wounded.

W. R. Campbell was shot through the breast, but is improving rapidly, and is now considered out of danger. Policeman Smith was wounded just under his shoulder, the bullet touching the lung and causing him to expectorate blood. While the wound is very painful it is not considered dangerous.

The funeral of Clyde Campbell will be held at the Central Christian church to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Rev. J. J. Spencer officiating. The pallbearers will be Thomas Denton, Leon A. Randolph, Samuel Downing, Thomas Spears, Cecil Parks and Charles Seelbach, Jr.

STREET CAR MEN TO HOLD MASS-MEETING.

Company Refuses to Take Back the Eighteen Discharged Men.

The committee of six appointed by the local union of street car men met President F. J. Minnary yesterday afternoon in a two-hour conference, in the course of which they demanded the reinstatement of the eighteen men discharged by the company, and discussed the evidence in each case. The upshot of the conference was an offer on the part of the company to reinstate two of the men conditionally, but a refusal to yield to the demands of the committee that all be taken back.

President Minnary sustained the decision of Supt. J. T. Funk and Assistant Supt. J. Flanck that the men had, after due investigation, been discharged for sufficient reason and without discrimination. The conference closed at 5 o'clock, the committee making no statement as to the probable action of the men, but deciding to report the results of the conference to an all-night mass-meeting to be called by them at Beck's Hall for to-morrow night.

Ben Commons, who is in the city to arrange the affairs of the street-car men, spoke of a possible request on their part for arbitration or a possible appeal to the Mayor to act as peacemaker.

APPEARS IN COURT PALE AND HAGGARD

RAYMOND HITCHCOCK SAYS HE HAS BEEN ILL.

URNS UP AFTER ABSENCE OF SEVERAL DAYS.

HIS BOND FIXED AT $7,500.

New York, Nov. 6.—Raymond Hitchcock, the actor, who disappeared several days ago, after he had been indicted on charges preferred by several young girls, appeared at the Criminal Court building to-day and went to the office of the District Attorney. Hitchcock is under bond to appear in court this afternoon.

Since Hitchcock's disappearance the police of the entire eastern section of the United States and Canada have been searching for him, but not a trace was found and absolutely nothing of his whereabouts was known to the public until he made his appearance at the Criminal Court building to-day.

He went directly to the District Attorney's office, from whence, accompanied by his wife and counsel, he was taken to the Court of General Sessions, where bail was fixed at $7,500.

Hitchcock was arraigned upon only one of the six indictments against him, to which he pleaded not guilty. Bail was furnished, Hitchcock was paroled in custody of his counsel upon the five indictments.

Counsel for Hitchcock said the actor had not been out of New York since his disappearance was reported, but had been suffering from nervous prostration as a result of the charges made against him. To-day, he said, was the first day he had really been able to go out of doors.

Hitchcock looked pale and haggard and showed signs of illness. To his friends he said he had decided to face his accusers and try to win back the confidence of his friends and the public.

"I am innocent," he said, "and the only way for me to prove it is to stand trial. I am prepared to fight it out now and I'll go through with it."

While Hitchcock was in court his wife remained in the District Attorney's office weeping and in a semi-hysterical condition.

ARE YOU SORE?
USE PARACAMPH
Sore Feet, Sore Hands, Sore Nose, Sore Throat, Sore Head, Cold in the Head, Neuralgia, Rheumatic Swellings, Sore Muscles, Any Ache or Pain—PARACAMPH will cure or money refunded.
TAKE NO SUBSTITUTE—Get Paracamp, America's Most Reliable Household Remedy.—ALL DRUGGISTS

JAMES B. BRADY TAKES FEATURE

Leads From Start To Finish In The Belle Rose Stakes.

DEEP MUD AT AQUEDUCT.

Okenite, At A Good Price, Beats Tramp, Pursale and Other Good Ones In Handicap.

RESULTS AT OTHER TRACKS.

AQUEDUCT, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Mud was deep on the track at Aqueduct to-day, and as a result the fields were greatly reduced. The Belle Rose Stakes, at six furlongs, was the feature, and resulted in an easy victory for the favorite, Jas. B. Brady, who was the pacemaker from start to finish.

In the opening sprint the original field of thirteen was reduced via the scratching route to four starters, Frank Lord, General Haley and W. H. Daniel.

In the second, Glen Echo, at 11 to 5, simply paraded home to victory, making Lord Stanhope and Consistent accept the place and show in the order named. James B. Brady, receiving the services of Jockey Miller, had a hollow victory in the Belle Rose Stakes, Arasee getting the place, while Woodbine, thought to be as good as in, blew up in the stretch and finished a rank third. Summaries:

First Race—Handicap; all ages; six furlongs. Frank Lord, 88 (E. Dugan), 3 to 1 and 7 to 10.

General Haley, 10 (E. Kelly), 5 to 1 and 7 to 10.

W. H. Daniel, 103 (McDaniel), out to show. Time, 1:15.

Consistent, 104 (Notter), 7 to 10 to show. Time, 1:50 3/4.

Second Race—Three-year-olds and up-wards; selling; mile and a sixteenth. Glen Echo, 102 (Muster), 4 to 1 and 7 to 10.

Lord Stanhope, 94 (E. Dugan), 3 to 5 place. Consistent, 104 (Notter), 7 to 10 to show. Time, 1:50 3/4.

Third Race—Two-year-olds; selling; six furlongs. James B. Brady, 107 (Miller), 11 to 10 and 2 to 5.

Arasee, 94 (E. Dugan), 7 to 10 place. Woodbine, 92 (Muster), out to show. Time, 1:14 1/2.

Fourth Race—Handicap; all ages; six furlongs. Okenite, 114 (G. Swain), 4 to 1 and 8 to 10.

Tramp, 107 (Ferguson), 5 to 2 place. Pursale, 121 (McDaniel), 6 to 5 to show. Time, 1:13.

Fifth Race—Six furlongs; two-year-olds; novices. Tommy Waddell, 107 (Miller), 11 to 10 and 2 to 5.

Woodbine, 92 (Muster), out to show. Time, 1:14 1/2.

Sixth Race—One and one-sixteenth; selling; three-year-olds and older. Al H. Woods, 106 (Daniel), 3 to 2 and 5 to 10.

Charles G. Gates, 100 (Callahan), 5 to 1 place. Time, 1:13 1/2.

Seventh Race—Three-year-olds; selling; six furlongs. Sally Preston, 113 (Pantouze), 10 to 1 and 5 to 10.

Blue Mamie, 115 (Loring), 4 to 1 and 8 to 10.

Blue Mamie, 115 (Loring), 4 to 1 and 8 to 10.

Blue Mamie, 115 (Loring), 4 to 1 and 8 to 10.

Blue Mamie, 115 (Loring), 4 to 1 and 8 to 10.

Blue Mamie, 115 (Loring), 4 to 1 and 8 to 10.

Blue Mamie, 115 (Loring), 4 to 1 and 8 to 10.

Blue Mamie, 115 (Loring), 4 to 1 and 8 to 10.

Blue Mamie, 115 (Loring), 4 to 1 and 8 to 10.

Blue Mamie, 115 (Loring), 4 to 1 and 8 to 10.

Blue Mamie, 115 (Loring), 4 to 1 and 8 to 10.

Blue Mamie, 115 (Loring), 4 to 1 and 8 to 10.

Blue Mamie, 115 (Loring), 4 to 1 and 8 to 10.

QUAKER CLUB MUST PAY LUSH SALARY.

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 6.—The National Baseball Commission to-day decided that the Philadelphia National League club should pay Player John C. Lush his salary under his contract with that club from the time the season opened up to and including the day that he was released to the St. Louis National League club, and the latter club, if they assumed his contract, must then pay him the difference between the amount the player would receive from the Philadelphia club under his contract and $3,000, his contract price for the season.

RESULTS AT HOUSTON.

Cocksure Excused, All Beta Declared Off and a New Book Made.

Houston, Texas, Nov. 6.—[Special.]—Fine weather served to increase the attendance at the Fair Grounds and a large crowd witnessed good racing to-day.

Cocksure was excused by the judges after getting bettered in progress five minutes on the mile handicap. All betas were declared off and a new book made.

Leo Beach favorite at 1 to 2. Brook's Bell and Milnera were equal second.

St. Louis race, which was held at 6 to 1. Simpson was the favorite.

St. Louis race, which was held at 6 to 1. Simpson was the favorite.

St. Louis race, which was held at 6 to 1. Simpson was the favorite.

St. Louis race, which was held at 6 to 1. Simpson was the favorite.

St. Louis race, which was held at 6 to 1. Simpson was the favorite.

St. Louis race, which was held at 6 to 1. Simpson was the favorite.

St. Louis race, which was held at 6 to 1. Simpson was the favorite.

St. Louis race, which was held at 6 to 1. Simpson was the favorite.

St. Louis race, which was held at 6 to 1. Simpson was the favorite.

St. Louis race, which was held at 6 to 1. Simpson was the favorite.

St. Louis race, which was held at 6 to 1. Simpson was the favorite.

St. Louis race, which was held at 6 to 1. Simpson was the favorite.

St. Louis race, which was held at 6 to 1. Simpson was the favorite.

St. Louis race, which was held at 6 to 1. Simpson was the favorite.

St. Louis race, which was held at 6 to 1. Simpson was the favorite.

St. Louis race, which was held at 6 to 1. Simpson was the favorite.

St. Louis race, which was held at 6 to 1. Simpson was the favorite.

St. Louis race, which was held at 6 to 1. Simpson was the favorite.

St. Louis race, which was held at 6 to 1. Simpson was the favorite.

St. Louis race, which was held at 6 to 1. Simpson was the favorite.

St. Louis race, which was held at 6 to 1. Simpson was the favorite.

St. Louis race, which was held at 6 to 1. Simpson was the favorite.

St. Louis race, which was held at 6 to 1. Simpson was the favorite.

St. Louis race, which was held at 6 to 1. Simpson was the favorite.

St. Louis race, which was held at 6 to 1. Simpson was the favorite.

St. Louis race, which was held at 6 to 1. Simpson was the favorite.

St. Louis race, which was held at 6 to 1. Simpson was the favorite.

St. Louis race, which was held at 6 to 1. Simpson was the favorite.

BASEBALL MEN CONFER HERE

Judge Shreeder, of Tacoma; McCloskey, of St. Louis; Hall, of Butte, AND M'GANN HOLD MEETING.

ARE AFTER LOCAL PLAYERS.

SECRET meeting of a number of men of considerable prominence in baseball circles was held in Louisville yesterday afternoon, and while everybody who was present at the conference refused absolutely to give out any facts concerning the meeting, it is known positively that a number of very important matters were discussed.

It was stated last night, but without authority, that an elaborate movement is on foot to purchase the Louisville club of the American Association, but each magnate who was present at yesterday's conference denied that there was any truth in this statement. As a matter of fact, all concerned agreed that they had simply met in Louisville by accident, and that no particular significance should be attached to the meeting.

Judge George M. Shreeder, who owns the Tacoma club of the Northwestern League, arrived early yesterday morning and stayed at the Louisville Hotel. Judge Shreeder, besides being power in the baseball politics of the Northwest, is a millionaire hotel man and is one of the most prominent men in his section. He was accompanied to Louisville by Russ Hall, a Shelbyville, Ky., boy, who is now a full-blooded magnate. Hall formerly pitched for the St. Louis club of the National League, when Tim Lincecum was manager of this organization. Hall at present, however, owns the Butte, Mont., club, of the Northwestern League, and he has made a wonderful financial success of his venture since leaving the St. Louis Nationals.

Judge Shreeder and Hall came through here, they stated, en route from New York to the Northwest. They attended last week's meeting of the National Association of Professional Baseball Clubs, which was held in New York, at the Fifth-avenue Hotel, and before they left for Chicago at 8 o'clock last night they declared they had simply come to Louisville by accident.

McCloskey, who is well known, is a popular Louisville man, and formerly managed the Colonels, when they were in the National League. After that experience he went into the Northwest and is now intimately acquainted with Judge Shreeder, Russ Hall and the other magnates of that section of the United States.

There is very little on which to base an opinion, but none of these interested parties would talk, but one certain fact is known, and that is that the Louisville club, which is now owned by McCloskey, is being offered for sale.

McCloskey, who is well known, is a popular Louisville man, and formerly managed the Colonels, when they were in the National League. After that experience he went into the Northwest and is now intimately acquainted with Judge Shreeder, Russ Hall and the other magnates of that section of the United States.

McCloskey, who is well known, is a popular Louisville man, and formerly managed the Colonels, when they were in the National League. After that experience he went into the Northwest and is now intimately acquainted with Judge Shreeder, Russ Hall and the other magnates of that section of the United States.

McCloskey, who is well known, is a popular Louisville man, and formerly managed the Colonels, when they were in the National League. After that experience he went into the Northwest and is now intimately acquainted with Judge Shreeder, Russ Hall and the other magnates of that section of the United States.

McCloskey, who is well known, is a popular Louisville man, and formerly managed the Colonels, when they were in the National League. After that experience he went into the Northwest and is now intimately acquainted with Judge Shreeder, Russ Hall and the other magnates of that section of the United States.

McCloskey, who is well known, is a popular Louisville man, and formerly managed the Colonels, when they were in the National League. After that experience he went into the Northwest and is now intimately acquainted with Judge Shreeder, Russ Hall and the other magnates of that section of the United States.

McCloskey, who is well known, is a popular Louisville man, and formerly managed the Colonels, when they were in the National League. After that experience he went into the Northwest and is now intimately acquainted with Judge Shreeder, Russ Hall and the other magnates of that section of the United States.

McCloskey, who is well known, is a popular Louisville man, and formerly managed the Colonels, when they were in the National League. After that experience he went into the Northwest and is now intimately acquainted with Judge Shreeder, Russ Hall and the other magnates of that section of the United States.

McCloskey, who is well known, is a popular Louisville man, and formerly managed the Colonels, when they were in the National League. After that experience he went into the Northwest and is now intimately acquainted with Judge Shreeder, Russ Hall and the other magnates of that section of the United States.

McCloskey, who is well known, is a popular Louisville man, and formerly managed the Colonels, when they were in the National League. After that experience he went into the Northwest and is now intimately acquainted with Judge Shreeder, Russ Hall and the other magnates of that section of the United States.

McCloskey, who is well known, is a popular Louisville man, and formerly managed the Colonels, when they were in the National League. After that experience he went into the Northwest and is now intimately acquainted with Judge Shreeder, Russ Hall and the other magnates of that section of the United States.

McCloskey, who is well known, is a popular Louisville man, and formerly managed the Colonels, when they were in the National League. After that experience he went into the Northwest and is now intimately acquainted with Judge Shreeder, Russ Hall and the other magnates of that section of the United States.

McCloskey, who is well known, is a popular Louisville man, and formerly managed the Colonels, when they were in the National League. After that experience he went into the Northwest and is now intimately acquainted with Judge Shreeder, Russ Hall and the other magnates of that section of the United States.

McCloskey, who is well known, is a popular Louisville man, and formerly managed the Colonels, when they were in the National League. After that experience he went into the Northwest and is now intimately acquainted with Judge Shreeder, Russ Hall and the other magnates of that section of the United States.

McCloskey, who is well known, is a popular Louisville man, and formerly managed the Colonels, when they were in the National League. After that experience he went into the Northwest and is now intimately acquainted with Judge Shreeder, Russ Hall and the other magnates of that section of the United States.

McCloskey, who is well known, is a popular Louisville man, and formerly managed the Colonels, when they were in the National League. After that experience he went into the Northwest and is now intimately acquainted with Judge Shreeder, Russ Hall and the other magnates of that section of the United States.

McCloskey, who is well known, is a popular Louisville man, and formerly managed the Colonels, when they were in the National League. After that experience he went into the Northwest and is now intimately acquainted with Judge Shreeder, Russ Hall and the other magnates of that section of the United States.

McCloskey, who is well known, is a popular Louisville man, and formerly managed the Colonels, when they were in the National League. After that experience he went into the Northwest and is now intimately acquainted with Judge Shreeder, Russ Hall and the other magnates of that section of the United States.

McCloskey, who is well known, is a popular Louisville man, and formerly managed the Colonels, when they were in the National League. After that experience he went into the Northwest and is now intimately acquainted with Judge Shreeder, Russ Hall and the other magnates of that section of the United States.

McCloskey, who is well known, is a popular Louisville man, and formerly managed the Colonels, when they were in the National League. After that experience he went into the Northwest and is now intimately acquainted with Judge Shreeder, Russ Hall and the other magnates of that section of the United States.

McCloskey, who is well known, is a popular Louisville man, and formerly managed the Colonels, when they were in the National League. After that experience he went into the Northwest and is now intimately acquainted with Judge Shreeder, Russ Hall and the other magnates of that section of the United States.

McCloskey, who is well known, is a popular Louisville man, and formerly managed the Colonels, when they were in the National League. After that experience he went into the Northwest and is now intimately acquainted with Judge Shreeder, Russ Hall and the other magnates of that section of the United States.

McCloskey, who is well known, is a popular Louisville man, and formerly managed the Colonels, when they were in the National League. After that experience he went into the Northwest and is now intimately acquainted with Judge Shreeder, Russ Hall and the other magnates of that section of the United States.

McCloskey, who is well known, is a popular Louisville man, and formerly managed the Colonels, when they were in the National League. After that experience he went into the Northwest and is now intimately acquainted with Judge Shreeder, Russ Hall and the other magnates of that section of the United States.

McCloskey, who is well known, is a popular Louisville man, and formerly managed the Colonels, when they were in the National League. After that experience he went into the Northwest and is now intimately acquainted with Judge Shreeder, Russ Hall and the other magnates of that section of the United States.

McCloskey, who is well known, is a popular Louisville man, and formerly managed the Colonels, when they were in the National League. After that experience he went into the Northwest and is now intimately acquainted with Judge Shreeder, Russ Hall and the other magnates of that section of the United States.

McCloskey, who is well known, is a popular Louisville man, and formerly managed the Colonels, when they were in the National League. After that experience he went into the Northwest and is now intimately acquainted with Judge Shreeder, Russ Hall and the other magnates of that section of the United States.

BAN JOHNSON ON WARPATH

American League President Has Hot Roast For the Minors.

TO TURN DOWN THE REQUESTS

National Commission, However, Will Hear Grievances of the Little Fellows Later On.

ARE AFTER LOCAL PLAYERS. SOME LIVELY BASEBALL TALK.

BAN JOHNSON, president of the American League, as member of the National Commission, has issued a warning to the belligerent minor leagues who made voluntary speeches against the National Commission in New York last week.

"These fellows who are doing all this talking about putting the National Commission out of business," said Johnson, "would be wiser to be moderate in their expressions."

In the first place, no minor league, or set of minor leagues, is going to displace the National Commission. It shall or shall not, I defy any of them to show one act in which the National Commission has shown favor to anyone, either in a major or minor league.

"Consequently, if baseball is to be kept on its present high plane, by far the highest it ever has occupied, the National Commission must be recognized as the authority of final appeal, and if the minors break away from that condition then they, and not the National Commission, will be the ones to suffer."

Johnson, who is now in Louisville, is the latest arrival in the city. He is a member of the National Commission, and is one of the most prominent men in his section. He was accompanied to Louisville by Russ Hall, a Shelbyville, Ky., boy, who is now a full-blooded magnate.

Johnson, who is now in Louisville, is the latest arrival in the city. He is a member of the National Commission, and is one of the most prominent men in his section. He was accompanied to Louisville by Russ Hall, a Shelbyville, Ky., boy, who is now a full-blooded magnate.

Johnson, who is now in Louisville, is the latest arrival in the city. He is a member of the National Commission, and is one of the most prominent men in his section. He was accompanied to Louisville by Russ Hall, a Shelbyville, Ky., boy, who is now a full-blooded magnate.

Johnson, who is now in Louisville, is the latest arrival in the city. He is a member of the National Commission, and is one of the most prominent men in his section. He was accompanied to Louisville by Russ Hall, a Shelbyville, Ky., boy, who is now a full-blooded magnate.

Johnson, who is now in Louisville, is the latest arrival in the city. He is a member of the National Commission, and is one of the most prominent men in his section. He was accompanied to Louisville by Russ Hall, a Shelbyville, Ky., boy, who is now a full-blooded magnate.

Johnson, who is now in Louisville, is the latest arrival in the city. He is a member of the National Commission, and is one of the most prominent men in his section. He was accompanied to Louisville by Russ Hall, a Shelbyville, Ky., boy, who is now a full-blooded magnate.

Johnson, who is now in Louisville, is the latest arrival in the city. He is a member of the National Commission, and is one of the most prominent men in his section. He was accompanied to Louisville by Russ Hall, a Shelbyville, Ky., boy, who is now a full-blooded magnate.

Johnson, who is now in Louisville, is the latest arrival in the city. He is a member of the National Commission, and is one of the most prominent men in his section. He was accompanied to Louisville by Russ Hall, a Shelbyville, Ky., boy, who is now a full-blooded magnate.

Johnson, who is now in Louisville, is the latest arrival in the city. He is a member of the National Commission, and is one of the most prominent men in his section. He was accompanied to Louisville by Russ Hall, a Shelbyville, Ky., boy, who is now a full-blooded magnate.

Johnson, who is now in Louisville, is the latest arrival in the city. He is a member of the National Commission, and is one of the most prominent men in his section. He was accompanied to Louisville by Russ Hall, a Shelbyville, Ky., boy, who is now a full-blooded magnate.

Johnson, who is now in Louisville, is the latest arrival in the city. He is a member of the National Commission, and is one of the most prominent men in his section. He was accompanied to Louisville by Russ Hall, a Shelbyville, Ky., boy, who is now a full-blooded magnate.

Johnson, who is now in Louisville, is the latest arrival in the city. He is a member of the National Commission, and is one of the most prominent men in his section. He was accompanied to Louisville by Russ Hall, a Shelbyville, Ky., boy, who is now a full-blooded magnate.

Johnson, who is now in Louisville, is the latest arrival in the city. He is a member of the National Commission, and is one of the most prominent men in his section. He was accompanied to Louisville by Russ Hall, a Shelbyville, Ky., boy, who is now a full-blooded magnate.

Johnson, who is now in Louisville, is the latest arrival in the city. He is a member of the National Commission, and is one of the most prominent men in his section. He was accompanied to Louisville by Russ Hall, a Shelbyville, Ky., boy, who is now a full-blooded magnate.

Johnson, who is now in Louisville, is the latest arrival in the city. He is a member of the National Commission, and is one of the most prominent men in his section. He was accompanied to Louisville by Russ Hall, a Shelbyville, Ky., boy, who is now a full-blooded magnate.

Johnson, who is now in Louisville, is the latest arrival in the city. He is a member of the National Commission, and is one of the most prominent men in his section. He was accompanied to Louisville by Russ Hall, a Shelbyville, Ky., boy, who is now a full-blooded magnate.

Johnson, who is now in Louisville, is the latest arrival in the city. He is a member of the National Commission, and is one of the most prominent men in his section. He was accompanied to Louisville by Russ Hall, a Shelbyville, Ky., boy, who is now a full-blooded magnate.

Johnson, who is now in Louisville, is the latest arrival in the city. He is a member of the National Commission, and is one of the most prominent men in his section. He was accompanied to Louisville by Russ Hall, a Shelbyville, Ky., boy, who is now a full-blooded magnate.

Johnson, who is now in Louisville, is the latest arrival in the city. He is a member of the National Commission, and is one of the most prominent men in his section. He was accompanied to Louisville by Russ Hall, a Shelbyville, Ky., boy, who is now a full-blooded magnate.

Johnson, who is now in Louisville, is the latest arrival in the city. He is a member of the National Commission, and is one of the most prominent men in his section. He was accompanied to Louisville by Russ Hall, a Shelbyville, Ky., boy, who is now a full-blooded magnate.

Johnson, who is now in Louisville, is the latest arrival in the city. He is a member of the National Commission, and is one of the most prominent men in his section. He was accompanied to Louisville by Russ Hall, a Shelbyville, Ky., boy, who is now a full-blooded magnate.

Johnson, who is now in Louisville, is the latest arrival in the city. He is a member of the National Commission, and is one of the most prominent men in his section. He was accompanied to Louisville by Russ Hall, a Shelbyville, Ky., boy, who is now a full-blooded magnate.

Johnson, who is now in Louisville, is the latest arrival in the city. He is a member of the National Commission, and is one of the most prominent men in his section. He was accompanied to Louisville by Russ Hall, a Shelbyville, Ky., boy, who is now a full-blooded magnate.

Johnson, who is now in Louisville, is the latest arrival in the city. He is a member of the National Commission, and is one of the most prominent men in his section. He was accompanied to Louisville by Russ Hall, a Shelbyville, Ky., boy, who is now a full-blooded magnate.

Johnson, who is now in Louisville, is the latest arrival in the city. He is a member of the National Commission, and is one of the most prominent men in his section. He was accompanied to Louisville by Russ Hall, a Shelbyville, Ky., boy, who is now a full-blooded magnate.

Johnson, who is now in Louisville, is the latest arrival in the city. He is a member of the National Commission, and is one of the most prominent men in his section. He was accompanied to Louisville by Russ Hall, a Shelbyville, Ky., boy, who is now a full-blooded magnate.

NEW RECORDS IN ATHLETICS

Season Just Ending Notable For Creditable Marks Set Up.

THE REMARKABLE FIGURES.

THE season in athletics, thus drawing to a close, has been most remarkable in the number of new records set up. Here is the list:

Running.

900-yard run—Melvin W. Sheppard, Irish-American A. C., Celtic Park, September 1, Time, 2:01 1/4.

Four-mile run—George W. Bonham, Irish-American A. C., Twenty-second Regiment Armory, February 22, Time, 20:14.

Eight-mile run—Melvin W. Sheppard, Irish-American A. C., Celtic Park, September 1, Time, 2:01 1/4.

Four-mile run—George W. Bonham, Irish-American A. C., Twenty-second Regiment Armory, February 22, Time, 20:14.

Eight-mile run—Melvin W. Sheppard, Irish-American A. C., Celtic Park, September 1, Time, 2:01 1/4.

Four-mile run—George W. Bonham, Irish-American A. C., Twenty-second Regiment Armory, February 22, Time, 20:14.

Eight-mile run—Melvin W. Sheppard, Irish-American A. C., Celtic Park, September 1, Time, 2:01 1/4.

Four-mile run—George W. Bonham, Irish-American A. C., Twenty-second Regiment Armory, February 22, Time, 20:14.

Eight-mile run—Melvin W. Sheppard, Irish-American A. C., Celtic Park, September 1, Time, 2:01 1/4.

Four-mile run—George W. Bonham, Irish-American A. C., Twenty-second Regiment Armory, February 22, Time, 20:14.

Eight-mile run—Melvin W. Sheppard, Irish-American A. C., Celtic Park, September 1, Time, 2:01 1/4.

Four-mile run—George W. Bonham, Irish-American A. C., Twenty-second Regiment Armory, February 22, Time, 20:14.

Eight-mile run—Melvin W. Sheppard, Irish-American A. C., Celtic Park, September 1, Time, 2:01 1/4.

Four-mile run—George W. Bonham, Irish-American A. C., Twenty-second Regiment Armory, February 22, Time, 20:14.

Eight-mile run—Melvin W. Sheppard, Irish-American A. C., Celtic Park, September 1, Time, 2:01 1/4.

Four-mile run—George W. Bonham, Irish-American A. C., Twenty-second Regiment Armory, February 22, Time, 20:14.

Eight-mile run—Melvin W. Sheppard, Irish-American A. C., Celtic Park, September 1, Time, 2:01 1/4.

Four-mile run—George W. Bonham, Irish-American A. C., Twenty-second Regiment Armory, February 22, Time, 20:14.

Eight-mile run—Melvin W. Sheppard, Irish-American A. C., Celtic Park, September 1, Time, 2:01 1/4.

Four-mile run—George W. Bonham, Irish-American A. C., Twenty-second Regiment Armory, February 22, Time, 20:14.

Eight-mile run—Melvin W. Sheppard, Irish-American A. C., Celtic Park, September 1, Time, 2:01 1/4.

Four-mile run—George W. Bonham, Irish-American A. C., Twenty-second Regiment Armory, February 22, Time, 20:14.

Eight-mile run—Melvin W. Sheppard, Irish-American A. C., Celtic Park, September 1, Time, 2:01 1/4.

Four-mile run—George W. Bonham, Irish-American A. C

